

FREE THINGS TO DO!

Monday Oct. 16	MUSIC // The Royal Room Collective Music Ensemble Seasoned multi-genre composer Wayne Horvitz conducts a 15-piece band of Seattle's finest instrumentalists, the Royal Room Collective Music Ensemble. You're in store for a beautifully improvised performance based on Horvitz's work, centering on experimental jazz.	7:30 pm doors at 6:30 pm The Royal Room 5000 Rainier Ave S
Tuesday Oct. 17	ART // The Art of Seeing, by Ken Lee Admire good photos but can't seem to get quite the right shot? Hear one man's story of how he developed his photographer's eye, a journey that did not click overnight, and learn how to sharpen your sense for effective photography, even if your tool of choice is just a camera phone.	7:30 pm - 9:30 pm Seattle Photographic Society 8500 14th Ave NW
Wednesday Oct. 18	HISTORY // History Café: Looking for Betty MacDonald The Museum of History and Industry partners with Seattle Public Library to present you with the History Café, a first-come-first serve gathering that brings local history to life. Guest speaker Paula Becker will offer the inside scoop on her new biography about Betty MacDonald, the witty author of the 1945 novel The Egg and I , a vivid chronicle of life on a chicken ranch in the wild and beautiful Olympic Peninsula.	6:30 pm - 7:30 pm MOHAI 860 Terry Ave N
Thursday Oct. 19	BOOKS // Scary Stories in the Stacks Stick around after hours at the library for double trouble! The annual Seattle Booktoberfest event is at its peak with this scary story circle, open to everyone who's up for an hour of spine-tingling tales.	8:05 pm - 9:00 pm SPL, Capitol Hill Branch 425 Harvard Ave E
Friday Oct. 20	ART // Storme Webber: Casino: A Palimpsest Through her intersectional background, multi-talented artist Storme Webber illuminates rich stories of marginalized peoples of Seattle, with the starting point of her exhibition on the LGBTQ history in Pioneer Square.	11:00 am - 5:00 pm Frye Art Museum 704 Terry Ave
Saturday Oct. 21	MUSIC // Chittenden Locks Summer Concert Series: Seattle Thrillers Prepared to get Thriller'd during the Halloween-themed, final concert of the year, taking place in the beautiful gardens and bridges of the famous Hiram Chittenden Locks.	2:00 pm Ballard Locks 3015 NW 54th At
Sunday Oct. 22	MUSIC // The Compline Choir Concert If you haven't luxuriated in the gorgeously synchronized, all-male voices of the Compline Choir before, you're in for a delight. There's no better place to bask in this soul-touching experience than St. Mark's Cathedral with its towering ceilings and masterful stained glass windows.	9:30 pm St. Mark's Cathedral 2045 10th Ave E